Activity/assignment guidelines for FYBScIT TCS, 2023-24

Activity no 1: Meetings- 24/08/2023

In this activity we will conduct meetings.

1. You have to form clusters of 4-5 students.
2. You have to decide the topic, process and potential outcome of a meeting to be conducted.
3. Make a plan i.e before meeting, during and after meeting.
4. Generate topics among your group and register with class CR on or before 31/08/2023.
5. You have to conduct a meeting on a given day i.e 2/09/2023.
6. Meeting activity will be held in the auditorium at 1 pm on 2/09/23.
7. Your group has to make notes on what individuals speak and minutes of the meeting on the same day of meeting.
8. You have to prepare a conclusion/summary after your meeting.
9. In the following lecture, your group has to present in the classroom paraphrasing of all the discussions done during the meeting.
10. Suggested topics:
    - Planning a trip
    - Health check-up camp
    - Problem solving topic for meeting
    - Any other topic as per your choice

Activity 2: Mock interview

In this activity students have to form a group and the interviewer has to prepare the questions. Students have to prepare themselves before, start and during and end of the interview.

Activity/assignment report for FYBScIT TCS, 2023-24

Activity no 1: Meetings

Students formed clusters and interacted with each other to set up a meeting. Meeting was held in the auditorium at 10.10 am on 11/09/23. Students sat in a circle on chairs and conducted meetings on their respective agenda. Students expressed that they enjoyed doing a meeting as it was a change of location from regular classroom to auditorium and they were able to discuss freely due to change in sitting posture which was not possible in the classroom. Students prepared an agenda before the meeting, took notes during the meeting, discussed issues, proposed solutions, prepared a summary and expressed it in the classroom in the following lecture. 50 students participated in this activity.

Activity no 2: Interview

Students formed groups, practiced and conducted interviews among each other. They gained experience for interviewing. Students also received feedback on their interview and become better prepared for their next interview. Mock interviews helped students to develop skills in the interviewing process. 24 students participated in this activity.

Ever since I saw a programme on "Heritage Toy Train of Darjeeling " I was seized with a wish to enjoy a ride on it. I saved money for the trip. One day I was on the train to Jalpaiguri from Delhi.

From Jalpaiguri to Darjeeling it is 82 kms on the toy train. The very sight of the Toy Train excited me and my eyes sparkled. Finally, I was in the dream toy. The experience I indeed was off unforgettable as the train chugged through lush green and thick Terai forests. The scenes all around me were just out of a fairy tale book. There were fascinating hills, waterfalls and woolly clouds almost touching the ground. The mist-filled valleys and hills lent a dreamy touch to the journey. The tall trees of Oak, Pine and Fur stood majestically adding beauty to the scene. At most of the places, the Train ran alongside the motor road. The huge terraced tea plantations all along the track presented a thrilling picture that vetted the eyes. It was a real journey through a Dreamland. The entire train journey took 6 hours, but the time flew as fast as it does in a train, years and days compressed into a few seconds –minutes.

The toy Train passed through by tiny villages of clusters of houses or buildings on both sides. The coaches ran so close to the shops that one could pick up goods from them or talk to the shopkeepers in low voices. The school children ran along the toy coaches and giggled at the passengers. The train slowly climbed up the mountains. The people got on or off the running train with ridiculous ease and safety. All along with the track, innocent and happy faces of the mountain people smiled at the passengers. The women folk wore colourful woollen garments which made them look like mountain fairies. To ascend the mountain heights, the toy train ran on a zig-zag track. I felt sorry when someone told me that the next was the terminal station of Darjeeling. How I wished more of the toy train!

Questions:

1. Between which stations, the toy Train runs?
2. What trees are commonly seen along the toy Train tracks?
3. What plant is grown on the terraced plantations of Darjeeling?
4. How much time the one way journey of the toy Train takes from one end to the other?
5. What do school children do when they see the toy Train?
